

VISUAL ARTS DIARY

OVERVIEW: 5 ART PROJECTS FOR YOUR VISUAL ARTS DIARY

Below is a list of 5 suggested art projects for you to create in your visual arts diary (VAD). Use the suggestions or create alternatives using some of the ideas that inspire you the most. You might like to use all of the suggestions in one large masterpiece in your VAD. Be inspired and start creating!

1.

Create an underwater world of real or mythical sea creatures. In your world explore the art elements of space, shape, and line.

Challenge yourself to explore these elements using only one art material such as charcoal, graphite, pencil, pen etc.

Use this one art material to find different ways to create variety in your artwork.

2.

Create an artwork that focuses on the use of identifying warm and cool colors.

Use patterns within your artwork to highlight how color can be used harmoniously and as a contrast.

3.

Create a series of stylized faces that explore the impact of proportions of facial features.

Draw a typical face shape and create alternative versions to explore the relationship that each facial feature has to another.

4.

Create a collage artwork that focuses on the concept of scale. This might include placing an image of a person inside an environment that exaggerates either the person or environment in relationship to each other. Use other art materials and techniques to help build your story.

5.

Design a complete outfit to wear using various patterns, shapes, and colors.

As a bonus, create some additional accessories and other fashionable items to complete your look. This could include jewelry, hat, shoes, glasses, etc.
