

VISUAL ARTS DIARY

OVERVIEW: VISUAL ARTS DIARY PROJECT PLAN

Great art can be created based on intuition and spontaneity and passion. However, great art can also be planned. If you've always wanted to create a portrait or a large landscape, you can create with a plan.

A plan can identify the specific aspects you want to explore and learn in your art process. A bit of planning in your artwork can help you become focused on creating the art you want!

10 STAGE ART PROJECT PLAN

IDEA

1. What is the subject of your art project?
2. What is your inspiration to create your artwork?

PREPARE

3. What art materials will you use in your art project?
4. What is the process for making your art. List the steps.
5. Do you have a timeline for your project? Plan ahead for any art sessions.

EFFORT

6. Practice any techniques before you begin your artwork.
7. Create the art work in your visual arts diary (VAD).
8. Identify any techniques you want to develop more, and practice these in your VAD.

REVIEW

9. Assess your artwork and identify any changes you want to make.
10. Create variations of your artwork in your visual arts diary to identify any possible changes to your plan. Explore new ideas based on your original plan.
