

VISUAL ARTS DIARY

OVERVIEW: EXPLORING ART RESOURCES NEW MASTERS ACADEMY

GOALS:

New Masters Academy is an online art school where you learn from instructors in a variety of styles through developing important foundations of art.

Unlimited streaming means you can learn from anywhere around the world at any time that suits you. The resource is provided on a subscription basis only with two plans currently available. Each plan differs in the features provided. The website provides over 30,000 quality reference images.

To see the website suits you, you can sign up for a 7 day free trial. You can also download a free reference image pack: <https://www.nma.art/#LB-DFxyJYtbGYB5EMYudMuiQ3>

You can peruse the list of art instructors here: <https://www.nma.art/instructors/>

NMA offers access to a forum where you can connect with other artists <https://www.nma.art/forums/>

If you're unsure about whether you want to join NMA, you can also take advantage of their free resources provided through their social media platforms such as YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/user/NewMastersAcademy/videos> and Instagram <https://www.instagram.com/newmastersacademy/>

The YouTube channel is especially helpful as you can watch lengthy videos critiquing other artwork.

**We have no affiliation with NMA and receive no compensation for this post. This post is provided as a way to explore potential art resources to help you develop your artwork.*

ARTWORK:

Visit New Masters Academy's YouTube page and use one of their instructional videos to guide you through creating an artwork in your Visual Arts Diary. We used this video:

How to Draw Animals with Glenn Vilppu <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kAboZuZTLUg>

